CONGRESSWOMAN DELAURO DISCUSSES INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS AT LATICRETE

Congresswoman Rosa DeLauro of Connecticut's Third Congressional District recently visited the LATICRETE International, Inc. headquarters in Bethany, Connecticut to discuss international business in the United States. DeLauro spent an afternoon touring LATICRETE production and meeting with the firm's employees.

"Congresswoman DeLauro discussed major issues of concern to LATICRETE and to businesses across America. She spoke of the importance of improving the visa process for firm's with worldwide operations and the need to encourage fair treatment of United States manufacturers on an international level," said David Rothberg, LATICRETE Chairman and CEO. "Both are issues important to LATICRETE and to our industry as a whole."

Congresswoman Rosa DeLauro currently serves on the House Appropriations Committee, Labor-Health and Human Services – Education and Agriculture Subcommittees and on the House Budget Committee. In 2002, DeLauro was appointed co-chair of the House Democratic Steering Committee.
